Noe 3-B, weight 71.25 grains, superb XF condition with both punches completely on the planchet and boldly struck. Nice and clean with attractive natural grey toning. A few tiny insignificant surface marks mentioned for accuracy. Would very possibly slab as AU. Ex James Stiles Collection, lot 2 in the Stacks sale of June 1981. Bust is excellent, but there is some loss to the black paper background at the bottom. Framed 6 x 7. 7) 4" cast metal, probably early 19th. 8) extremely rare 3 ¼ sulphide paperweight, label from Jokelson collection. 16,500.

5 In the late 19th century coins became popular hosts for enamelers to display their skill. Many thousands of coins were enameled in England, mainly by Birmingham area jewelers. Even most advanced collectors of enameled coins are not aware that the craft was also practiced in Czarist Russia, most notably at the world renowned workshops of Peter Carl Faberge, jeweler and goldsmith to the Imperial Court. Thirteen years ago in London I began a collection of authentic Faberge objects incorporating enameled coins. The entire collection is offered here. More detailed info on all pieces available on request.

Daniel Phillips (corrected spelling) was a member of the 135th Pennsylvania militia regiment, and served as a landsman on the schooner Tigris at the battle at Put-in-Bay on Sept. 10.

Carl Carlson's extensive research on mintages and transactions for early mint medals reported only a single example known of this medal in silver, that being the one inscribed to John Cook and permanently held in the collection of the American Numismatic Society. 114 Extremely rare carte de visite Jefferson Davis, taken during one of his stays in London following the war. Imprint of Plumridge, Regent St, London. Presumably unpublished, possibly unique. Insignificant touch of foxing to mount, exc. 1,750.

115 John Wilkes Booth theatrical broadside, Boston Museum, April 1864. 6 x 14-1/2, slightest toning, excellent. These are always popular. 1,400.

116 Desirable war date signature from a document "R E Lee – Richmond – 5 Sept '64". Perfect to frame with a cdv if you don't want to spend five figures. 2,950.

117 Rare Landon license plate that I haven't seen before, issued by Republican National Committee. Couple minor little spots, exc. 550.

118 Beautiful TR bandana, custom framed 19 x 19. Portrait, battleships, flags of world. Mint. 550.

119 32" carved, painted and gilded wood sign. Gilt edged red letters "BILLIARDS", excellent condition but for small broken piece at lower right corner. Circa 1880 – 1910. 400.

120 Unique trappers or bushwhackers gun only 18" long, made from an 1864 dated US issue musket by Lamson, Goodnow & Yale, Windsor VT. Small patch box cut into stock. With original (cut down) ramrod. All markings sharp & bold. Condition only good, but it has a lot of charm. 550.

121 1920 dated prohibition poster 24 x 36, telling the evils of alcohol on athletes. Quotes from Connie Mack, Hurry-Up Yost and George V Brown. Minor toning at edge, VF-Exc. 500.

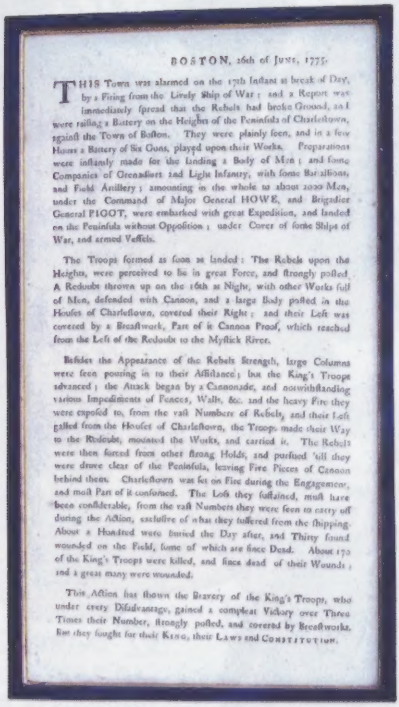
122 This is really nice. Beautifully framed 10 x 12 pen & ink folk art map showing North and Central America with the principal cities, rivers, forts and some Indian tribes. Outlined in red/blue/yellow. Mid 19th cent, near mint. 600.

123 The largest signed DiMaggio I've seen, huge 17 x 22 (sight), batting pose, pristine bold signature in blue-green sharpie. 650.

124 13" Bowie knife by G. Ibberson & Co., fancy carved bone grip, blade etched "G Ibberson – A Trusty Companion – Never Fails". Original sheath with button. Circa 1860's, exc. 1,350.

125 Large sepiatone composite photo 10 x 12-1/2 (sight), triple matted and framed 16 x 19 "National League Champions 1929 – Our Cubs". A couple edge tears and small blemishes not readily seen in the busy design. VF 500.

1 SUPERB 1652 NEW ENGLAND SHILLING



BOSTON, 26th of June, 1775.

THIS Town was alarmed on the 17th Instant at break of Day, by a Firing from the Lively Ship of War: and a Report was immediately spread that the Rebels had broke Ground, and were raising a Battery on the Heights of the Peninsula of Charlestown, against the Town of Boston. They were plainly seen, and in a few Hours a Battery of Six Guns, played upon their Works. Preparations were instantly made for the Landing a Body of Men: and some Companies of Grenadiers and Light Infantry, with some Battalions, and Field Artillery: amounting in the whole to about 2000 Men, under the Command of Major General HOWE, and Brigadier General PIGOT, were embarked with great Expedition, and landed on the Peninsula without Opposition: under Cover of some Ships of War, and armed Vessels.

The Troops formed as soon as landed: The Rebels upon the Heights, were perceived to be in great Force, and strongly posted. A Redoubt thrown up on the 16th at Night, with other Works full of Men, defended with Cannon, and a large Body posted in the Houses of Charlestown, covered their Right: and their Left was covered by a Breastwork, Part of it Cannon Proof, which reached from the Left of the Redoubt to the Mystick River.

Besides the Appearance of the Rebels Strength, large Columns were seen pouring in to their Assistance: but the King's Troops advanced: the Attack began by a Cannonade, and notwithstanding various Impediments of Fences, Walls, &c. and the heavy Fire they were exposed to, from the vast Numbers of Rebels, and their Left galled from the Houses of Charlestown, the Troops made their Way to the Redoubt, mounted the Works, and carried it. The Rebels were then forced from other strong Holds, and pursued 'till they were drove clear of the Peninsula, leaving Five Pieces of Cannon behind them. Charlestown was set on Fire during the Engagement, and most Part of it consumed. The Loss they sustained, must have been considerable, from the vast Numbers they were seen to carry off during the Action, exclusive of what they suffered from the Shipping. About 2 Hundred were buried the Day after, and Thirty found wounded on the Field, some of which are since Dead. About 170 of the King's Troops were killed, and since dead of their Wounds: and a great many were wounded.

This Action has shown the Bravery of the King's Troops, who under every Disadvantage, gained a compleat Victory over Three Times their Number, strongly posted, and covered by Breastworks, for they fought for their KING, their LAWS and CONSTITUTION.

FOOT RACING
I positively know from experience in fifteen Marathon races that alcohol used in any form in a race of this kind is a "positive detriment."
FOOTBALL
Coach "Hurry-Up" Yost says: "Nothing tries a man's staying power like football." He will not "waste his time trying to train a drinker."
BASEBALL
Connie Mack says: "All umpires together haven't put as many ball players out of the game as OLD MAN BOOZE."
Alcoholic liquors impair strength, eyesight, judgment, quick thinking and reaction time.
